PROJECTS

2020 - CURRENT

Portfolio | Full Stack Developer

My portfolio features projects built to demonstrate my skills and deepen my knowledge, showcasing my expertise in front-end and back-end development. While I don't have professional experience in the field yet, I have developed applications using React, Next.js, Node.js, NestJS, HTML, CSS, and Docker, continuously refining my abilities. You'll also find links to my social media, GitHub, and additional details.

2023

News Portal | Full Stack | (Study & Skills Showcase Project)

Inspired by popular news portals, this full-stack project uses Next.js and TypeScript for a polished front-end and Strapi(CMS), Cloudinary, and PostgreSQL (via Docker) for the back-end. It includes key pages like Home, News, Search, Category, Login, and Profile, with features such as search, pagination, comments, highlighted news, related articles, and exclusive content for registered users.
